

入試問題に見る課題の意義

- On their return, snow and ice storms slowed their progress and they (?) out of supplies. (春休みスクランブルイディオム)
(1) ran (2) pulled (3) moved (4) came
- Air above a warm part of the planet will rise faster than the surrounding cooler air, so more air slides in to take its place in the low-pressure void left behind. (イディオム)
(1) to expand the place (2) to empty the place
(3) to influence the place (4) to occupy the place
- Like the formation process of rain, snow and storm, so much depends on water molecules changing from one state to the other. (イディオム)
(1) gives up for (2) is conditional upon
(3) keeps away from (4) goes along to
- The idea of fighting over language might seem strange, but it's all too common. Why do people sometimes feel so strongly about their language that they take up arms against speakers of another? What is it about language that can generate tensions that last for generations? The answer to these questions lie XXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXX and identity. (Sprint 春休み課題)
Q. 並べ替え問題 : (between / close / in / languages / relationship / the)
- That wonderful idea suddenly (?) me. (語法)
(1) struck to (2) occurred (3) hit (4) came
- Jack has been in the hospital for two weeks, so you (?) him walking in town yesterday. (文法)
(1) cannot have seen (2) cannot see (3) must be seen (4) must have seen

※ おそらくどれもみんなの知っている大学の入試問題ばかりです。自分に合ったやり方で、適切な時に適切な場所で努力してください。努力は裏切らないというのは嘘です。

「適切な時間に、適切な場所で、適切な方法でなされた努力は裏切らない。」どうか学校の課題を有効活用してください。今まで学校から出された課題をしっかりと自分の力にした人ならできる問題ばかりです。